

List of services rendered by the State Plant Quarantine Service of the Ministry of Agriculture and Protection of Environment of Turkmenistan

Effective as of 01 November 2019

	Services provided free of charge
1.	Development of quarantine testing, laboratory analysis and methods of detection of stealthy infections of seeds, plants, plant products, as well as technologies for cargo disinfection
2.	Carrying out laboratory analysis of samples of imported, exported and transit cargo quarantine control and inspection of crops and orchards
3.	Study of the quarantine and other dangerous insects, diseases of plants, biology, ecology and sex composition of weeds that have not been observed or with limited dissemination in Turkmenistan
4.	Carrying out state control over the implementation of quarantine measures in the production, processing, storage and sale of quarantine goods, products and materials by ministries and government agencies and sectoral agencies, enterprises and organizations, as well as individuals
5.	Monitoring the implementation and carrying out the detection, restriction and elimination of quarries of quarantine facilities using chemical and biological means of plant protection
6.	Carry out inspections of quarantine components of the mail sent, of the luggage and hand luggage of passengers and that of crews of ships, aircrafts, train, as well as arriving humanitarian cargos
7.	Training and coaching of public trustees as well as individuals appointed by the authorities to ensure the implementation of quarantine measures
8.	Conducting lectures and discussions on plant quarantine with dignitaries and experts of farms and institutions of various forms of ownership

9.	Advising on the detection of quarantine objects and countermeasures of quarantine objects as well as on the rules and conditions of using, importing and exporting of products subject to quarantine
10.	Advocating the plant quarantine knowledge, radio and television appearances, publication of articles in newspapers and magazines, preparation of posters and other newsletters
11.	Inspection of 3 km area premises of warehouses, seaports, trade ports, border stations, loading and unloading areas at border crossings, as well as storage and processing areas of imported goods
12.	Studying and compiling the achievements and best practices of quarantine science, the introduction and advocating the effective methods and means of dealing with quarantine facilities